About Comprehensive Therapy Center

Since 1982, Comprehensive Therapy Center has helped children with disabilities to walk, talk, learn and play. In 2009, the agency:

1. Provided special educational services for more than 335 children with developmental delays, cognitive impairments and learning disabilities in 12 different schools in West Michigan.
2. Provided $91,085 of charity care in 1008 for disadvantaged children attending the Therapy and Fun program.
3. In the summer of 2009 at Therapy and Fun, 40 children received 2,520 hours of therapy.
  - Therapy reports show that 80% of speech and occupational therapy goals were met.
  - Parents were invited to four educational seminars. Rated excellent by parents.
  - Our 45 teen volunteers accumulated 2,723 hours of service valued at: $53,098.
4. Perhaps the largest measure of success is improved family life. Here are some parent comments:
  - “Cathy’s speech has really improved. She is using longer sentences like, “What is it?”
  - “Jason learned to juggle while rocking on a balance board, improving his concentration and attention span which will increase his success at school. He is also calmly taking turns now. We are very happy.”
  - “We’ve seen global growth. My son is talking a lot more, alternating his steps much better, using markers with more purpose and seems to be quite happy with himself.”
